

Use Case Name	Detailed Description
Register	The user can create a new account by entering a username, email, and password. The system securely stores the information.
Login	The user can log into the system using their username and password. If the credentials are correct, access is granted.
View Reports	The user can view expense reports categorized by type or time period.
Generate Monthly Summary	The system automatically generates a monthly financial report and allows exporting it as a PDF or CSV file.
Manage Account	The user can update personal information, change their password, or delete their account.
Categorize Expense	The user can organize expenses into specific groups to better manage financial records.
Set Budget	The user can set a monthly spending limit to track their financial usage.
Export CSV or PDF File	The user can export reports and financial summaries in CSV or PDF format.
Edit, Share	The user can edit or share financial data with others.
Edit Info, Setting the Alert System	The user can modify their personal details and configure budget alerts.
Add/Delete/Edit Expense	The user can add, modify, or remove expense records from the system.
Budget Notification	The system alerts the user when their spending approaches or exceeds the budget limit.
Generate Expense Trend	The system analyzes spending patterns and generates trends for better financial planning.
Log Out	The user can securely log out of the system.

